

Graduate Rural Surveyor

Peter Graham & Associates LLP

Established in 2007, Peter Graham & Associates is a small team of local Chartered Surveyors with Offices in Elgin and the Black Isle. We offer a wide range of Rural Land Management and Professional services throughout the North East and Highlands of Scotland. Our desire is to provide high quality, professional and personalised services to individual clients.

Overview of Role

We seeking to expand our team and an exciting opportunity has arisen for a Graduate Rural Surveyor to join us with full support through the APC process being provided. Undertaking all aspects of rural surveying including: Property and Land Management, Renewables, Natural Capital, Valuation as well as compensation and compulsory purchase work for landowners in relation to infrastructure projects. The successful candidate will get the full range of experience and support required to complete the APC.

Responsibilities

Working with a wide range of mostly private clients on a variety of rural work including:

Estate management

Selling and letting of rural properties

Undertaking rural property valuations

Renewables

Natural capital

Compensation and compulsory purchase work for landowners

Requirements

RICS accredited degree

A high quality of service and interpersonal skills - must be capable of building and maintaining good relationships with team members, other colleagues and clients.

Proficient IT and time management skills

Excellent attention to detail with the ability to work individually as well as part of a team.

Driver's license and own vehicle

Experience in land management, business management, property letting and/or agriculture preferred but not essential.

Full training will be provided.

Benefits

Competitive salary

Flexible working environment

Work pension and private health care (upon completion of probationary period)

To Apply

Please email your CV and cover letter to:

Ed.dunbar@petergassoc.co.uk